West Norfolk and King’s Lynn Archaeological Society

in partnership with

Historic Environment Service, Norfolk County Council

---

A Celebration of Archaeology in West Norfolk

A free one-day conference marking 45 years of the West Norfolk and King’s Lynn Archaeological Society

Saturday 24th November 2012, Thoresby College, King’s Lynn

---

10:00
Registration & Coffee

10:30
Welcome and Introduction

Dr Paul Richards FSA, FRSA, President, Dr Clive J Bond and Dr Richard Hoggett

10:45
The Archaeology of Improvement: West Norfolk in the Post-Medieval Period

Dr Sarah Spooner and Dr Jon Gregory

11:30
A Regional Landscape: Medieval High Status Settlement in West Norfolk

Dr Rob Liddiard

12:15
Raising the Dead: The Anglo-Saxon Archaeology of West Norfolk

Dr Richard Hoggett
13:00  Lunch (not provided) – bring sandwiches or explore Lynn’s eateries!

14:00  The Changing Landscape of Iron Age and Roman Norfolk
       Dr John Davies

14:45  Earlier Prehistoric West Norfolk: from the fen-edge to the North Sea
       Dr Clive J Bond

15:30  Tea & Biscuits

15:45  West Norfolk Archaeology: Questions and Challenges
       John Smallwood

16:30  Discussion and End of the Day

***

This conference is generously supported by a Norfolk County Council grant. Posters by archaeological and historical organisations, societies and groups that contributed to better understanding the archaeology and history of the West Norfolk and King’s Lynn area over the past 45 years will be on show.

Places should be booked by contacting:

Dr Clive J Bond, Chairperson, West Norfolk and King’s Lynn Archaeological Society,
2 Pine Road, South Wootton, King’s Lynn, Norfolk PE30 3JP
Tel. 01553 671239 or e-mail. clivejbond@aol.com

The Time Team ‘Seahenge’ reconstruction entrance, Thornham, 2010.

Website Resources
wnklas.greyhawk.org.uk/main.php www.norfolk.gov.uk/Environment/Historic_environment/www.heritage.norfolk.gov.uk www.klprestrust.org.uk/Thoresby_College.html
www.visitwestnorfolk.com